

Correction

Omission From “Funding/Support” Subsection of the “Acknowledgment” Section. In the article titled “Functional Brain Basis of Hypnotizability” by Hoeft et al, published in the October 2012 issue of the journal (2012; 69[10]:1064-1072), on page 1070, right-hand column, “Funding/Support” subsection of the “Acknowledgment” section, a grant was omitted. The paragraph should have read as follows: “Funding/Support: This study was supported by grants from the Nissan Research Center (Dr Spiegel), the Randolph H. Chase, M.D. Fund II (Dr Spiegel), and the Jay and Rose Phillips Family Foundation (Dr Spiegel), grant RCI AT0005733 from the National Center for Complementary and Alternative Medicine (principal investigator, Dr Spiegel), and P41-EB015891 from the National Institute of Biomedical Imaging and Bioengineering (Dr Glover)."